Sheryl Spooner, Administrative Assistant to the Mayor and Deputy City Clerk, was the motivating force in the success of this program.

CITIZEN COMMENTS

Elizabeth Ochoa, Ochoa Enterprises, stated that she has been bombarded by the media and wants to know what’s going on with the Zion administration. She stated that she presented a sports complex project proposal to the City which she feels is a solution to the $10.5 million Grand Slam Sports lawsuit problem. She stated that on January 6, 2012, she sent a letter to the City Attorney regarding her proposal and to date has not received a response. She asked the City Council where we go from here and stated she will wait for the City’s response.

Mayor Pro Tem Jim Taylor stated that the Council would take her comments under advisement and that she would hear from the Council or the City Attorney.
Shon Sadler, 3506 Sarah Drive, stated that two weeks ago the ZB News ran an article regarding the Zion Human Relations Commission. He stated that only the Mayor is to speak on behalf of the City of Zion in regard to public relations. He stated he is not certain if the Commission is active and that a Commissioner continues to prove that she cannot do things right at the City’s expense. He asked that the City Council censure her to keep from causing the City to spend money.

Mayor Pro Tem Jim Taylor stated that the Zion Human Relations Commission was dissolved by the Mayor and the terms have expired.

Commissioner Shantal Taylor stated that the Human Relations Commission is not dissolved and currently has members.

Carol Brandt, 2814 33rd Street, stated she read the article in the January 17, 2012 News Sun regarding the selling of City Hall. She stated she finds this news surprising and ask the Council to comment. She stated that building a new City Hall building doesn’t seem reasonable as the City is strapped for money.

Mayor Pro Tem Jim Taylor stated that the City of Zion cannot confirm or deny the accusations in the newspaper. He said it is illegal to discuss matters outside of Closed Session and someone obviously broke the law. Matters regarding the purchase or sale of real estate are not discussed in open session.

The resident at 2815 Ezekiel stated that taxpayers have a right to know what’s going on and a Commissioner elected to serve the residents should not be silenced. It appears that negotiations have been conducted.

Commissioner Shantal Taylor stated that she was glad that citizens were in attendance to express concerns. This is a serious time to pay attention. She stated that she is holding a Zion Community Connections session where residents can inform her where services should go.

Mary Horrel stated that she supported the Ochoa Enterprises proposal and asked the City Council to consider the proposal as a solution.

Commissioner Shantal Taylor stated that the City Council had received an email response from the City Attorney and asked why it had not been transferred to Ms. Ochoa. She was prepared to share the email with Ms. Ochoa and asked that Ms. Ochoa receive a response before she left tonight. She asked Attorney Randall why the response was not forwarded to Ms. Ochoa.
