 - 5a. Chief Barden request to eliminate the 2 year final eligibility list and remove names from the list when they have been on the list for 2 years? An ongoing revolving eligibility list.

“In reference to the statute, the final eligibility list statute has no mention to a list being posted for 2 years. The statute requires that a person’s name remain on a final list no more than 2 years. After such time (two years) a name must be struck from a final eligibility list. Chief Barden confirmed this with the attorney for the state of Illinois board of Fire and Police Commissioners.” See attorney information below.
